

Day 1 – Skit

Will is sitting in a chair pretending to wash his feet. Melody walks up to him.

Melody: Hey Will, what are you doing?

Will: Oh, well...um... I am washing my feet.

Melody: Why are you washing your feet?

Will: I just want to be ready for when I have to take off my shoes. (Will looks around to make sure no one is listening) I don't want everyone to smell my feet. I have a foot odor problem.

Patrick: Hi Melody! Hi Will! Didn't you just love today's lesson? Wow, I never thought about God's Holiness like that. He's perfect, He's set apart, He's better than anyone or anything. He truly is worthy of our worship and praise.

Melody: Oh yes! God is so awesome! Just think He spoke to Moses from inside a burning bush. And though it was on fire it didn't even burn up!

Will: (Still washing his feet) Wow! That must have been something to see.

Patrick: Uhhhh..Will, why are you washing your feet?

Will: Oh, I want to make sure they are nice and clean in case God calls me to stand on Holy ground, like He did Moses.

Melody: But Will, you already are in God's presence when you trusted Jesus to be your Lord and Savior last year, remember?

Will: (Shaking his head yes)

Patrick: Yeah Will, Jesus cleans us on the inside by washing away our sins. He doesn't care if your feet are stinky. Besides, He gave us the Holy Spirit to live in us. God will always be with us wherever we go.

Will: You mean I don't have to worry about taking off my shoes to be near God?

Melody: No, God showed us through Moses that He wants us to humble ourselves, like Moses did when he took off his shoes. Moses was ready to listen to God because he was humble before God.

Will: But how will I hear God talk to me like He did Moses?

Melody: God talks to us today when we pray to Him. We can hear him when we read His Word in the Bible.

Patrick: Yeah, we can also hear God talk to us through other people like our teachers, pastors, or friends and family. Just yesterday when I was talking to my friend Bruce. He told me that his mom was really sick. Immediately I felt like I wanted to pray with him. So, Bruce and I prayed together right there.

Will: Wow! That's amazing! You heard the Holy Spirit tell you to pray right then and there!

Melody: That's right, the Holy Spirit is our guide. Do you remember from our lesson what God told Moses when he asked God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh?" "God told Moses, "I will be with you...." God also goes with us through the Holy Spirit living in us.

Will: Oh yes, I remember that! So, the Holy Spirit is like my personal guide and I just follow God's lead.

Patrick: You got it Will. Whatever mission he calls us to, big or small, He promises to always go with us.

Melody: And we will always be in His Holy presence.

Will: Stinky feet and all!

(The three friends laugh together)
