

Day 2: Unshakable: Worship away Worry

Melody: (Sitting, hands over face, crying dramatically)

Patrick: Melody? What's wrong? Did you see a spider? (reaches to comfort her, looking around paranoid)

Will: Is there a storm coming? (Looks at his weather app on his phone or holds his hand over his eyes like he's looking over the horizon at a storm approaching)

Melody: No, guys. I'm just feeling worried.

Will: Worried? I thought you were unshakable.

Patrick: Yeah, what are you worried about?

Melody: Moving. When I think about all the changes ahead, I get worried.

Patrick: Changes?

Will: What is going to change?

Melody: Well, I have to pack all my stuff or give it away.

Patrick: Oh man, I hate packing.

Melody: And when I move, I'll have to live with new people. What if they don't like me?

Will: That will be different.

Melody: And those are just the things I know. There could be all sorts of other changes.

Patrick: Who knows what is around the corner?

Melody: That's right. So, I get worried.

Patrick: You know, when I get worried, I sing.

Melody: Sing?

Patrick: Yeah, like Paul and Silas did in the story we heard today.

Will: Right! Even though they were in prison and didn't know what would happen to them, they sang about how awesome God is. They sang His praises.

Patrick: And then a miracle happened. Their chains fell off and the prison doors flew open!

Melody: And because of their praise to God. The jailer asked them how he could be saved too. they walked out of that prison and continued to spread the good news of Jesus!

Will: They could have been worried about their future, but instead they focused on God and His power.

Melody: That's true! I can turn my worry into worship. Let's sing right now!

All: Our God is an awesome God, he reigns from heaven above, with wisdom, power and love, our God is an awesome God!

(Invites congregation to sing along)

Melody: I will remember that. Turn worry into worship and be UNSHAKABLE!
